

The BML W5 provides a wide variety of reports that enable users to leverage the information contained within BML business models to identify opportunities for business improvement. One of these reports is the BML Use Cases.

BML Use Cases

The BML Use Cases Report provide textual based Use Cases generated from the BML HOW model. The completed report lists the Activity, Activity Description, Actors (BML WHO) assigned to the Activity, Triggers & Frequency (BML WHEN), Location where Activity occurs (BML WHERE), Information Create, Read, or Updated (BML WHICH), and Success and Exception paths.

The BML Use Cases Report is generated based on the information sources- BML files and models- selected by the user and can be output in one of several formats, including a Microsoft Word document (.doc), or Web page (.html, .htm).

The BML Use Cases Report is offered as an add-on to BML W5 and is a standalone license.

The following is sample output of the BML Use Cases Report.
